

G.R.
MANUFACTURING, INC.

Machine Shop Laborer

Full Job Description

G.R. Manufacturing, Inc. is seeking a talented Machine Shop Laborer to join a diverse team to support production and manufacturing.

The Machine Shop Laborer candidate will be responsible for assisting primary laser, press brake and machining center operators with material movement, operator level maintenance and general housekeeping of production areas. As well as operation of production machines such as band saw, iron worker, drill press and plasma torch.

Other key responsibilities

- Load and unload raw material and parts from laser cutting machines.
- Assist in unloading raw material trucks and storing material in assigned locations.
- Make parts using general metal prep machinery such as a band saw, iron worker, drill press and plasma torch using the part drawing as a reference.
- Assist machine operators with material handling, operator level maintenance & general housekeeping.

Basic Qualifications

- Ability to read blueprints
- Ability to use measuring tape and work with metric system of measurements
- Demonstrated competency in basic shop math
- Must be flexible with daily job assignments
- Ability to operate forklift and overhead cranes
- Ability to lift up to 50 lbs

Education Requirements

- High school diploma or GED certificate
- Vocational training or 1 year related job experience