

G.R.
MANUFACTURING, INC.

Press Brake Operator

Full Job Description

G.R. Manufacturing, Inc. is seeking a talented Press Brake Operator to join a diverse team to support production and manufacturing.

The Press Brake Operator candidate will be responsible for setting up and operating hydraulic press for routine established work.

Key Tasks and Responsibilities:

- Form parts to drawing specifications
- Select correct tooling for each job
- Select correct program for each part
- Create programs for new parts
- Perform assigned work to time standards and quality expectations
- Enter completed work orders into DBA database
- Participate in equipment preventative maintenance at the operator level
- Maintain work area and cleanliness of machine

Skills and Attributes

- Use CNC controller to input information into machine
- Ability to understand blueprints
- Ability to read measuring tape and other precision measuring instruments such as micrometers, angle finders and calipers
- Demonstrated competency in basic shop math
- Ability to work with metric measuring system
- Ability to make routine decisions and use problem solving to resolve basic manufacturing issues
- Ability to lift up to 50 lbs.

Experience Requirements

- High school diploma or GED certificate
- Minimum of 2 years' experience in related field